MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: DCI/DDCI Meeting with the Assistant to the President for National Security Affairs, 26 September 1985

1. We spoke of the preparations for the Summit. McFarlane said he was anxious to get the Soviet SDI briefing to a joint committee of Congress. We agreed that Larry Gershwin would be the right guy to do that.

10. In response to the DCI's question, McFarlane said that the NSPG on the Philippines would be next Thursday, 3 October. The DCI then spoke of the proposal to have Vessey accompany Laxalt to the Philippines, which would send a strong signal not only to Marcos but to the military as well. McFarlane thought it would be a good idea, but he leaned toward using General Paul Gorman.
